A FEW Europeans killed, many wounded, according to dispatches from China, an unpleasant change in the usual program. The custom has been for Europeans in China to shoot a few Chinese and quiet things in that way.

IT TURNS out that bitterness against Britons, greater even than Chinese hatred of Japanese, was caused in the recent troubles when a British officer was first to give the order, "Shoot to kill."

AMERICAN officers that went to England to play polo against the British officers beat the British again yesterday, 6 to 4, and the polo military title stays in the United States. That is good. But why are American enlisted men sent over to act as servants?

LAWYERS, old and young, all that enjoy seeing the human mind work quickly and efficiently, attend the story of Max D. Steuer, representing and protecting a woman in a New York divorce case.

The husband, a very rich man, had good lawyers, good witnesses. Fortunately, for her, the woman secured Max D. Steuer. A jaunty young gentleman named Talbot W. Chambers, the husband's best witness, confessed that he and the rich man's wife were guilty. He lost his faintness when Steuer immediately arranged to have him indicted for adultery, under the laws of New York State.

SECOND CLASS LAWYERS are usually most polite to each other, call each other "learned counsel," and let clients pay the bills.

Lawyers, witnesses, all look alike to Steuer in a fight. He put the rich man's lawyer on the stand and forced him to confess that his client, the rich husband, was guilty of perjury, swore that he didn't know the names of two men he had brought into the suit.

Then Steuer demanded the rich husband's indictment for perjury.

When the dust settles, you will probably find the rich husband indicted for one crime, and the jaunty witness, modern improvement on Joseph and Potiphar, indicted for another crime.

Steuer hurt the confessing witness' feelings by calling the judge's attention to the fact, "New York courts have refused to grant divorces on the uncorroborated testimony of prostitutes," in which category Mr. Steuer placed Mr. Chambers.

THE MORAL seems to be, "If you have anything framed up, don't let that young lawyer, Max D. Steuer, get into the frame. He may spoil your picture."

SPECKS of news make up the world's history, as the ticking of the second hand makes up eternity.

The Prince of Wales, celebrating his thirty-first birthday in far-off North Africa, danced until late. Princes mature and dance later than they used to. Alexander the Great, "the youth that all things but himself subdued," was making the world dance when he was thirty-one. When Napoleon Bonaparte was two years younger than the Prince of Wales is now, he had dried the tears of his friend, the pretty young widow, Josephine Beauharnais, by beating three Austrian armies in succession and compelling the brave General Wurmser to take to his heels and hide in Mantua.

WHEN Henry the Eighth was Prince of Wales and only eleven years old he was engaged to Catherine of Aragon six years older than himself. When he was twenty-one he was the military partner of the Pope and the Spanish Emperor. Continued on Page 4, Column 4.

M'ILLAN TAKES OWN SHORT WAVE RADIO TO ARCTIC DESPITE NAVY

Donald B. MacMillan, head of the Polar expedition which is at Sydney, N. S., on its way to the far reaches of the Arctic, today in a personal message to the Boston Evening American announced his cheerful acquiescence to the demands of Secretary of the Navy Willard that he carry navy radio equipment with his expedition.

Lieutenant Commander MacMillan, while according in every way to the so-called ultimatum of the Navy, pointed out in his message that the low wave length radio equipment with which his ships were equipped when he sailed from Boston, a week ago, has already given wonderful demonstrations.

The message indicates that the MacMillan party will now carry both the high wave length navy radio and the original low wave length receiving and sending sets. Commander MacMillan's message. Continued on Page 5, Column 1.

COOLIDGE STARTS DAY WITH A WALK IN RAIN

Ignoring rules of hospitality, New England weather dealt a body blow to the distinguished visitors from Washington at Swampscott today. Members of the President's official family, and particularly the Washington correspondents and their wives, direct from the interior of Washington, suffered in their first summer clothing. As little as possible, in the rain, and shuddered at the thought of ocean bathing.

The correspondents declared they might as well have been assigned to the MacMillan expedition, while their better halves wailed that they wanted to go some place where it was warm.

ALL WANT WARM CLOTHING. "We thought it was Summer in Massachusetts," they complained gratefully, "but it feels like late Fall," said the local newspapermen, at the local newspapermen.

5 HURLED OUT AS CAR UPSETS, MISS DEATH

Three men and two women, racing in an automobile along Commonwealth avenue, looked hard in the face of death today when the car failed to make the turn into Arlington street, crashed into the curb and turned bottom side up on the sidewalk of the Public Gardens. All five riders in the machine, declared by the police to have been speeding between sixty and seventy miles an hour with a motorcycle officer in pursuit, were thrown into the street, escaping with bruises and contusions.

CHANGE OF VENUE FOR MACRI TRIAL

New Haven, Conn., June 25 (A.P.)—The motion of the State for a change in venue of the trial of Miss Olympia Macri, indicted for the murder of Joan Bagnano, was granted by Judge John R. Booth of the Superior Court today. The court then heard arguments as to the motion, contended the county other than New Haven County for the trial. State's Attorney Ailing, in his motion, contended that the case could be tried here just as well as elsewhere in the State, in his argument yesterday defense counsel contended it was a prerogative of the accused to move for a change of venue, and not that of the State. Miss Macri shot and killed Joan Bagnano on February 25 while he was in the lobby of a theatre here.

A man and two girls, one said to be the sweetheart of the murder victim, were rounded up in the North End today in connection with the mysterious killing of Johnny Vito, Irish boxer and alleged blackjack player. Vito was found shot to death early today in a lonely, wooded section of Granite street, South Boston.

The man detained by police of the Hanover street station, William Marotta, of Garden Court street, North End, according to police authorities, has admitted having accompanied Vito and another man to Nantasket last night after the two girls left Vito at 10 o'clock.

Swig Row Causes Secession Threat in Quincy

3,500 SIGN PROTEST ON DANCE HALL

Wollaston and Atlantic Demand an Immediate Zoning Law

The secession of a third of the population of Quincy from the corporate control of that city and the forming of a new municipality on the South Shore is to be undertaken.

Manifestation over the manner in which the Quincy City Council has treated their demands of zoning legislation is one of the principal reasons for the secession move which has been initiated by the residents of Wollaston, Norfolk Town, Atlantic, Scituate and Montclair.

The question of forming a separate municipality will be taken up at a mass meeting of the residents of the five communities, to be held in the Francis W. Parker School at Norfolk Towns tomorrow night.

PROTEST DANCE HALL
The proposed dance hall being erected in Wollaston along the Quincy Shore Drive is the immediate cause of the drastic move of the North Quincy districts, the improvement associations in four of the communities leading the movement.

The mass meeting is primarily a protest against the delay of the City Council in passing a zoning ordinance which would exclude certain types of buildings, commercial enterprises and factories from residential districts and the waterfront.

Featuring the row is an objection to the immense dance hall of Simon Swig on Shore Drive in Wollaston, which, according to Swig's announcement, is to be opened as a public ballroom the night before the Fourth.

TO FRONT ON DRIVE.
As president of the Quincy Amusement Enterprise Company, has a permit to erect a building for restaurant, store and amusement purposes at Vassal street and the shore reservation. When it is finished, he cannot be prevented, city officials say, in acquiring a license to use it as a dance hall, inasmuch as the State fire marshal has approved the location, and city laws do not forbid it.

The building, which is also to contain a restaurant and several stores, covers 25,000 square feet, fronting on the drive.

Residents of Wollaston and Atlantic do not want a dance hall on the beach front, calling it commercial exploitation of the reservation. They declare that time it will disfigure the place this will attract an undesirable element.

3,500 SIGN PETITION.
Besides the demand for zoning regulations, members of the improvement associations have signed petitions to the city council.

Stable speculation in real estate is another evil against which protests may be uttered at the mass meeting. The meeting was called by William K. Emblen, president of the Wollaston Improvement Association.

George A. McPhee, president of the Scituate Improvement Association, Henry D. Fallon, president of the Atlantic Improvement Association, and Anthony M. Zetoli, president of the Montclair Improvement Association.

According to those who talk of secession, the five South Quincy communities have a combined population of 21,000, about one-third of the city's total population, and are separated by a natural barrier of waste land from Quincy proper, Quincy Adams, West and South Quincy, and Hough's Neck.

18-YEAR TERM FOR JEWELRY THEFT
Lester Weiner of Philadelphia, found guilty of being one of four men who robbed the Carl H. Skinner jewelry store in Brighton street on August 25, was sentenced to from 18 to 25 years in State Prison today.

June Louie gave a map of direction to take the case to the Supreme Court on exceptions.

The Skinner store was entered early in the morning. A check was held up and the robbers escaped with $10,000 worth of jewelry and silverware.

Weiner's defense was an alibi. He produced witnesses, who said he was in Philadelphia on the day. The other three men never were arrested.

CHARGE WOMAN STOLE UNFINISHED 10 BILLS
Washington, June 25 (A.P.)—Charged with theft of eight unfinished $10 bills, Mrs. Grace L. Crawford, for ten years employed in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the government currency plant, is at liberty under $1,000 bonds after appearing before United States Commissioner Turney.

The bills, lacking a signature and seal, were in sheet form. Secret Service men said one of the bills had been caught by a street car conductor, while another was spent at a market. The other six, she said, had been burned by the woman.

Mrs. Crawford confessed, Commissioner Turney said, that she wanted the money to buy things for her seventeen-year-old daughter.

SAYS IMMIGRATION LAW IMPELS WOMEN TO LABOR
Chicago, June 25 (A.P.)—Women in industry and avocation of labor thought were subject of speakers at today's closing session of the Catholic conference on industrial problems.

Restrictive immigration laws, by cutting down the supply of cheap labor, have seemingly impelled industry to turn more aggressively toward women and children, said the Rev. J. M. Connor, D. D., Washington, D. C., professor of sociology of the Catholic University of America.

In a high proportion of cases the factory wage for women, he said, should now be a family living wage.

Forgery in Maine Primary Petitions, Brewster Says

Augusta, Me., June 25 (A.P.)—Governor Ralph O. Brewster plainly intimated in a statement today, covering the investigation of petitions filed with the Legislature last winter, proposing measure under the initiative and referendum law to repeal the direct primary law, that he will not issue a proclamation calling for a referendum on the question.

This decision is based on the ground that less than 4,000 names were filed legally, although 12,000 were required to make the proposal effective.

Governor Brewster said that in the petitions "there were gross evidences of fraud. A great number of signatures were obviously made by the same hand. Duplicate petitions with exactly the same names were filed from different towns. Manifest irregularities were apparent."

He stated that in response to a postal card canvass hundreds of voters had reported back that their names upon the petitions were not signed by them. These reports came to the attention of certain Maine legislators in certain Maine cities of the State, he added. Further investigation resulted in a wholesale repudiation of the petitions that had been filed.

He said that the signatures of the nature of the people, taking oath to the authenticity of the petition, had been forged, he said.

HARRISON SAYS DAWES NEEDS "EXPERIENCE"
Chicago, June 25 (A.P.)—Limitation of debate in the Senate, as proposed by Vice-President Dawes, would disregard American traditions, charge American politicians, and endanger American capital as well as American labor, Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, said in a radio address here. Fair criticism of rules under which the Senate operates may be heard only on long experience in that body," he said.

$116,000 for Stock Exchange Seat Sets Record
New York, June 25 (A.P.)—The highest price ever paid for a seat on the New York Stock Exchange was established today when S. P. Street, president of the Stock Exchange Corporation, disposed of his membership for $116,000. The previous record was made in the boom market of 1929, when two memberships were transferred for $115,000 each.

Mr. Street gave a very great proportion of the seat to a group of persons who stated that in response to a postal card canvass hundreds of voters had reported back that their names upon the petitions were not signed by them. These reports came to the attention of certain Maine legislators in certain Maine cities of the State, he added.

RUM TRIAL LAWYERS ROW OVER 'IMMUNITY'
A heated clash between Federal District Attorney Williams and former Federal Prosecutor Asa P. French, of defence counsel, entailed the trial of the Sabatary Beach rum cases in United States District Court today.

The battle in words brought in a reference by Attorney French to Mrs. Isabel Walker Wilson, ex-stunt attorney general, as "boss of all the Federal Attorneys," a characterization bitterly followed by the trial Attorney Williams and excluded by Judge Lowell.

IMMUNITY ALLEGED.
Former Solicitor Daniel R. Gethel, of Sabatary, who confessed participation in the alleged rum conspiracy and who turned State's evidence, was being cross-examined by Attorney French as to confessions with the prosecution when the words battle began on Attorney French's intimation that Gethel was expecting immunity.

District Attorney Williams, in direct examination of Gethel, attempted to use a transcript of his statements to Department of Justice Agents William J. West and Emory L. Rhine to refresh the witness's memory.

Six of the thirteen counsel were on their feet objecting. Judge Lowell allowed part of the line of questioning to go in, but finally excluded it on the ground that it had little weight against Harold P. Condon against whom it was admissible, but immaterial weight against French.

"I know," French, against whom it was not admissible.

"GEORGE GOT HIS."
The witness, in cross-examination, testified he told Condon that he found not as little if George had anything to do with it and Condon said: "George has got in to it and I had to give him his."

He admitted that there was contact between himself and Condon, and that they had exchanged only passing greetings for some time. He said Condon had detained him for about fifteen years ago.

After that, he said, he had city connections and, moreover, he used to have been the go-between for the Sabatary rum smugglers, and Harry P. Burham, Coast Guard commander at Newburyport, also knew the stand for the government.

Further investigation resulted in a wholesale repudiation of the petitions that had been filed. He said that the signatures of the nature of the people, taking oath to the authenticity of the petition, had been forged, he said.

HARRISON SAYS DAWES NEEDS "EXPERIENCE"
Chicago, June 25 (A.P.)—Limitation of debate in the Senate, as proposed by Vice-President Dawes, would disregard American traditions, charge American politicians, and endanger American capital as well as American labor, Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, said in a radio address here. Fair criticism of rules under which the Senate operates may be heard only on long experience in that body," he said.

Six of the thirteen counsel were on their feet objecting. Judge Lowell allowed part of the line of questioning to go in, but finally excluded it on the ground that it had little weight against Harold P. Condon against whom it was admissible, but immaterial weight against French.

RUM TRIAL LAWYERS ROW OVER 'IMMUNITY'

A heated clash between Federal District Attorney Williams and former Federal Prosecutor Asa P. French, of defence counsel, entailed the trial of the Sabatary Beach rum cases in United States District Court today.

The battle in words brought in a reference by Attorney French to Mrs. Isabel Walker Wilson, ex-stunt attorney general, as "boss of all the Federal Attorneys," a characterization bitterly followed by the trial Attorney Williams and excluded by Judge Lowell.

IMMUNITY ALLEGED.
Former Solicitor Daniel R. Gethel, of Sabatary, who confessed participation in the alleged rum conspiracy and who turned State's evidence, was being cross-examined by Attorney French as to confessions with the prosecution when the words battle began on Attorney French's intimation that Gethel was expecting immunity.

District Attorney Williams, in direct examination of Gethel, attempted to use a transcript of his statements to Department of Justice Agents William J. West and Emory L. Rhine to refresh the witness's memory.

Six of the thirteen counsel were on their feet objecting. Judge Lowell allowed part of the line of questioning to go in, but finally excluded it on the ground that it had little weight against Harold P. Condon against whom it was admissible, but immaterial weight against French.

"I know," French, against whom it was not admissible.

"GEORGE GOT HIS."
The witness, in cross-examination, testified he told Condon that he found not as little if George had anything to do with it and Condon said: "George has got in to it and I had to give him his."

He admitted that there was contact between himself and Condon, and that they had exchanged only passing greetings for some time. He said Condon had detained him for about fifteen years ago.

After that, he said, he had city connections and, moreover, he used to have been the go-between for the Sabatary rum smugglers, and Harry P. Burham, Coast Guard commander at Newburyport, also knew the stand for the government.

$116,000 for Stock Exchange Seat Sets Record
New York, June 25 (A.P.)—The highest price ever paid for a seat on the New York Stock Exchange was established today when S. P. Street, president of the Stock Exchange Corporation, disposed of his membership for $116,000. The previous record was made in the boom market of 1929, when two memberships were transferred for $115,000 each.

Mr. Street gave a very great proportion of the seat to a group of persons who stated that in response to a postal card canvass hundreds of voters had reported back that their names upon the petitions were not signed by them. These reports came to the attention of certain Maine legislators in certain Maine cities of the State, he added.

Further investigation resulted in a wholesale repudiation of the petitions that had been filed. He said that the signatures of the nature of the people, taking oath to the authenticity of the petition, had been forged, he said.

GIGANTIC SLIDE

Herds and Buildings Destroyed as Mountain Topples Into Wyoming River

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 25 (A.P.)—A mountain of rocks, moving at an incredible speed, toppled into the Gros Ventre River, in the heart of the Teton Mountains in western Wyoming, according to a message received here. A section of the Teton National forest was washed to oblivion, several large herds of cattle were swept away and many buildings destroyed. The river has been dammed to the great heap of earth and rock and a great lake is forming, several miles long.

In the process. In a short time, according to the dispatch, it will create a lake seven miles long and a mile wide, and probably hundreds of feet deep, because of debris deposited on either side of the stream at this point.

One horseman who narrowly escaped injury from flying debris when the mountain collapsed, declared that the huge natural dam resulting therefrom caused the swift, shallow stream to fill to the 100-foot depth in a period of five minutes.

ANOTHER KLAN RALLY

Another supposed Ku Klux Klan meeting was brought to a sudden end when Mayor Curley's leading inspectors swooped down on an assembly in Norfolk Hall and declared the hall was not equipped to comply with the fire laws.

A man who appeared to be the spokesman of the meeting complied with the order to disband the meeting and the hall was then left empty. The mayor's inspectors on the meeting was about to adjourn anyway.

OF BOOTLE CHARGES

A general court martial that convened at the Charleston Navy Yard has fully acquitted Peter Nystrom, a chief boatswain in the navy and attached to the hotel part, of the charge of delivering or causing to be delivered denatured alcohol for the purpose of distribution. The charge was the result of a search made on Tug 71 at the yard in March and the setting, so it was said, of a small still and a still smaller amount of alcohol. Nystrom was restored to active duty.

HEIR TO SINGER
FORTUNE-HITS
WIFE IN EYE

New York, June 25 (Universal)—A mob of 600 men crowded a breathless throng in a doorway at Lexington avenue and Eighth street.

While the boy prepared to fight, a big Italian chauffeur exhorted the mob.

"Let's kill this guy. He whopped a girl—I saw him! He whopped a girl—I saw him!"

The boy looked out with his fists and a police "driver" halted at the curb.

HAS HIM ARRESTED

A girl leaped out, followed by Patrolman McDonough, driver of the car. Pushing through the crowd, she faced them furiously.

"Don't you dare lay a hand on him—he's my husband!"

Then to Patrolman McDonough, she ordered:

"Lock him up. I'll appear against him."

This was another chapter written in the hectic romance of Arthur K. Bourne, Jr., heir to the Singer sewing machine millions, and his pretty girl-wife, the former Beatrice Clancy, daughter of John K. Clancy, millionaire Astoria, La. I. contractor.

And thus ended the two-day vigil that Beatrice Bourne kept in front of the home of her young husband's mother, Mrs. Ethel Hobbs Bourne, at No. 439 Park avenue.

CRIES DRAW CROWD

Mrs. Bourne told reporters that she learned of her husband's return from California two days ago.

"Arthur," she asked him, "what is there after you? Don't you really love me, after all?"

"And then—why I can hardly believe my own senses."

"Arthur drew back his fist and struck me in the eye?"

KRESGE SEEKS DIVORCE FROM SECOND WIFE

Married Him Only for His Money, 5 and 10-Cent Store King's Counsel Says
Detroit, June 25.—An admission was made here by Paul W. Voorhies, attorney for S. S. Kresge, multimillionaire prohibitionist, reformer and son of a famous magnate, that Kresge cherishes the hope of ultimately winning an absolute suit of divorce from his second wife, Doris Mercer Kresge.
"If Mr. Kresge will fight to the limit against his wife's suit for separate maintenance," Voorhies declared.
"In his defense he will declare that Doris Mercer married him for money only, and was in no way a wife to him. He will show what her temperament is and prove that the marriage was impossible after the first few months," the attorney added.
Asked what Kresge planned to do against his wife's suit for separate maintenance and her suit for $2,000,000 worth of Kresge stock, Voorhies admitted that his client is seriously considering moving to a jurisdiction other than New York, where his legal domicile, where a divorce can be obtained only when infidelity is proved.
"Will he return to Detroit or go to some place like Reno?" Attorney Voorhies only smiled at that, but insisted that Kresge will fight for his freedom from his second wife, bride of little more than a year, and twenty years his junior.

Lord's Prayer Said in Many Tongues at Cathedral

New York, June 25 (A. P.)—The Lord's Prayer was recited in half a dozen tongues when nearly 100 masons, stonemasons and laborers in work clothes joined with contractors and clergy in a prayer service at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, before laying the first stone for interior walls of the nave.
The ceremony and trustees have been at loggheads over the question for weeks but the ceremony have submitted a proposition on which the trustees have announced no decision, as yet.
Archbishop James H. Hayes conferred again with Arthur Roland W. Boyles on the selection of a third man for the board of arbitration in the "27" case and with Fred A. Cummings in the Eastern Massachusetts case, without coming to an agreement with either. These conferences will be continued between the archbishop.

6 BILLION YEAR IN BUILDING FORECAST

No Room for Pessimist Real Estate Dealers Are Told in Detroit Meeting
Detroit, June 25 (A. P.)—America is in the midst of an era of building construction of such magnitude as no nation in history ever dreamed of undertaking, S. W. Straus, president of S. W. Straus & Co., asserted today at the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.
Mr. Straus predicted that the record of $3,750,000,000 of new building set by the United States in 1924 would become a new record of $5,000,000,000 in 1925, and that the prosperity prevalent in the building industry today would continue indefinitely, accompanied by a consolidation of general nationwide prosperity in all affiliated industries. His message to business men was that "moderately as the effects of gigantic building operations go, we are going to have good business." He declared that with a $5,000,000,000 building program outlined for this year "all business must move forward along prosperous lines; all trades and industries will be better off." His conclusion was that "the business pessimist of today has small room, indeed, for comfort."

SHOTS GO WILD, WOMAN'S SENTENCE SUSPENDED

Concord, N. H., June 25.—Mrs. Stevens, Dow of London, who, according to evidence given in police court, had fired four shots from a revolver at Constable Frank Brown when the latter went to her farm to take possession of a mortgaged horse, was given a suspended sentence of six months in jail today by Judge William L. Stevens on a charge of assault. All the shots went wide of the mark and Brown succeeded in getting away with the horse.

"Now—my work on washday is just the rinsing"

This new kind of soap works alone . . . it does the washing . . . leaves me just the rinsing to do . . .

"I put my clothes in a tub at night and in the morning I find them so clean that I do not have to boil them. The thorough rinsing brings everything out white as snow. I am saved so much time and labor—it gives me an extra two hours!"
Mrs. E. W. Arlington, Mass.

"By personal use I have found Rinso a marvel for cleaning sinks, tubs, enamel, mirrors, oil cloth, etc. It works like magic and when I am through there is my cloth saturated with only water so that it itself is easily washed out clean!"
Mrs. A. J. B. D., Chicago, Ill.

NOW the Big New Package or the regular size at your grocer's

THOUSANDS of women have written us thanking us for this new kind of soap. "Bless you, makers of Lux," say they. "For making wash day so much easier, so much cheaper, so much shorter with Rinso!"

This rich, mild soap is made in tiny granules, so boiling water sets free all its fine cleansing power to wash for you. Each thread of the wash is soaked with soap so rich that you can feel it all through the water with your hand. Gently, safely dirt is loosened and floats out.

Never a bit of hard rubbing. Even places where dirt gets ground in need only a light rub between your hands. Rinso does the wonders with your weekly wash that Lux does with your socks and woollens. Use Rinso the way you like best to wash.* It washes as perfectly in any washing machine that 22 leading makers of washing machines recommend it.

Rinso lightens the work of cleaning all these things, too

Women write us, too, how wonderful Rinso is for general household cleaning. They use it for dishes, pots and pans, bathtubs, basins, linoleums, floors and woodwork. It makes your clothes and mops so soapy that dirt and grease just melt away without any hard scouring.

Because it dissolves completely, there is nothing harsh to mar smooth surfaces or dim the freshness of paint and colors. Keeping all these things bright and new-looking is made easier and pleasanter.

*For the best results: For washing clothes dissolve Rinso in boiling water to wet all its wonderful cleansing power free. Use enough to get creamy lathering suds. For household uses just sprinkle it right on. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

Rinso saves you—saves your clothes

DON'T forget the poor during the hot Summer months. THE HELPING HAND will see that all the "hot water," etc., offered goes to worthy hands.

This Day in History
THIS is the anniversary of the entrance of Cortez, in 1520, into the City of Mexico, after one of the most remarkable expeditions of the world.
